

Lunch With Cassie Takes New Look

When photographer Cassandra Reynolds marries cardiologist Jeff Gordon, the handsome doctor who saves her life, she also joins his father's non-denominational Christian church located in the Chicago suburbs.

Cassie is happy until Angela, an ex-girlfriend with a child who might be Jeff's, starts calling at all hours. Suspecting Jeff of infidelity, Cassie grows attracted to billionaire Jonathan Hunter, a handsome, twice-widowed hotelier who hungers and thirsts for beautiful young women like Cassie to fill his empty life.

Soon, Cassie realizes that she is being watched and followed by a stranger in a black car. Jeff is always away from home. Is there a connection? What doesn't she know?

When threatened by a loan shark, Cassie leaves town with Jonathan and flees to Las Vegas, Aspen, Houston, Australia and Scotland.

What has Jeff gotten her into? Will her marriage survive? Which man should she trust?

The Assassin Who Loved Her

In The Assassin Who Loved Her, journalist Jennifer Long wants two things: to become a great writer and to fall in love. Her dreams come true when she writes about a serial killer called the Assassin who stalks, threatens, and torments her for exposing his motives in the media.

Tim, the pilot, brings Jennifer financial security. Jason, the actor, brings her fame and fortune. John, the former FBI agent, brings her protection and intrigue. But Jennifer must survive murder, deceit, heartache, and grief before she finds true love, happiness, triumph, and relief.

From Chicago, to Washington, to Hollywood, to Portugal, Jennifer fights for her life and career. Her story will make you laugh and cry. It'll make you believe in love. It'll make you hope and pray she wins.

With a fairytale beginning and a Hollywood ending, it has everything a good novel should have! Read it and love it!
